

Mr. Yevhenii Dykhne
Chief Executive Officer
Ukraine International Airlines

Via e-mail

Budapest, 27 January 2020

Dear Mr. Dykhne,

Thank you for your letter and please let us take this opportunity to express on behalf of Budapest Airport our deepest condolences for the tragedy of your flight P5752 on 08 January 2020, the news of which has shocked us all as it did the rest of the world. Our thoughts are with you and all families affected.

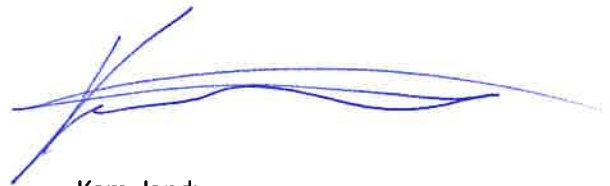

Your kind request for increased support for your operations is of course noted and please be assured that Budapest Airport remains committed to continue being at your best service going forward and we reiterate your message to your ground handler partner too.

In case we can be of any further assistance please do not hesitate to contact us.

With deepest condolences,

Dr. Rolf Schnitzler
CEO

Kam Jandu
CCO

Budapest Airport